ARTIST BIO

Real, guitar driven, and soul-laced rock n roll still exists...and it lives in an exciting little chasm in Nashville where the band FOUST resides. FOUST, formed in 2019 out of the ashes of the southern-rock outfit Blackwater James, is a true rock n' roll band that is commonly compared to the likes of Velvet Revolver, SpaceHog, Foo Fighters, and The Cult. Both on record and in concert, FOUST is high energy, exciting, unpredictable, and a bit ludicrous...everything a rock band should be.

Baring the bands name, lead singer, guitarist, and primary songwriter, Chris Foust recruited longtime confidant and drummer Todd Schlosser (Blackwater James, Majestic Swayzee, ATG) and bassist/producer Chris Utley to form the primary elements of the group. In the winter of 2019, demo recordings of the band were published online and circulated, generating additional interest in the group and their sound. Then, in the spring of 2020, the tracks were remastered and commercially released in August 2020 with the A/B single, The Fountain. This single was followed up in September by the bands debut EP, REVIVAL, featuring 6 original songs. Following the success of their debut EP, a stand alone single titled 'FASHION' was issued in March of 2021.

Following the release of 'FASHION' is the band's upcoming sophomore EP titled 'IT'S A VIBE'. This record will include 5 new tracks and sport a more polished sound for the band. Influences on this record range from more modern acts such as Yungblud and The Pretty Reckless, to the more traditional rock fare of Alice in Chains. Songs include the first single, The Dark, an ode to those who live outside the lines and in the shadows, the angsty pop-rock anthem Unamke Me, and an 8 minute opus titled You'll Never Know. To support this new record and subsequent live performances in 2022, the new band line-up includes the following: Chris Foust on lead vocals and select guitar, Todd Schlosser on drums, Brian Stanley on lead guitar, Alex Auer on rhythm guitar, and 'Spookie' Rollings on bass.
